

CVs of the speakers

Salvador García-Atance

Chairman of ASEPAM Executive Committee, Global Compact Spanish Network and Chairman of the Fundación Lealtad since 2001, Salvador García-Atance has been President of Morgan Stanley Dean Witter in Spain after being Founder, Chairman and President of A.B. Asesores Bursátiles, S.A. (now Morgan Stanley). He used to work in the Secretaría General Técnica, the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Finance.

Joaquín Garralda

Vice-Dean for Academic Affairs, is an expert on CSR and the Director of the Master in CSR at Instituto Empresa in collaboration with PriceWaterHouseCoopers.

Isabel Garro

Managing Director of ASEPAM since 2007, Isabel Garro has been in charge of the creation of ASEPAM. She worked three years in Ernst & Young in Advisory Service Business, in the insurance area. She started her professional career in Société Générale in the Department of Corporate Finance. She is graduated in Administration and Business by the Universidad Pontificia de Comillas

Gil Ramos Masjuan

Graduated in Law by the Universidad de Deusto, Gil Ramos is member of the inspectors Group of Employment and Social Security. He took part of the elaboration and preparation of the Committee of Experts on CSR called "Foro de Expertos"; he assists to the CSR High Level Group in Brussels and participates to the social debate in view to create the actual CSR Council initiative of the Spanish Government.

Jaime Silos

Jaime Silos is Director Corporate development Director at Forética since year 2003. Mr. Silos started his career as a share analyst at Argus Vickers American Equity Research in London. After he completed his MBA at Instituto de Empresa, Mr. Silos oriented his career to the development of CSR strategies in several industries such as financials, construction, automotive among others.

Eva Ramos

Director, Corporate Social Responsibility Programme. She has teamed with companies and public administrations to design and implement CSR strategies. She has provided training to business executives and postgraduate students in Spain and Latin America and she is co-author of several publications on CSR.

Eva Derqui

Eva Derqui works in the International Human Resources Department of OHL, one of the biggest companies in services and construction.